UK Renal Pharmacy Group Conference
23rd - 24th September 2016
Manchester Conference Centre
78 Sackville St, Manchester M1 3NJ
Developing Knowledge, Developing Practice

Friday 23rd September

10.00 - 12.00 The Pharmacist and the Renal Patient Pathway
An Introduction to Renal Pharmacy for pharmacists new to renal
Introduction to the renal patient pathway; Pharmacokinetics and drug dosing; AKI;
CKD and pre-dialysis; Renal replacement therapy or dialysis; A beginner's guide to renal transplant.

11.00 onwards Registration

12.00 - 13.00 Cotton Room - Lunch and exhibition

13.00 - 14.00 RPG Annual General Meeting

14.00 - 15.00 What can we learn from the liver?
Sheetal Shah, Principal Pharmacist Hepatology, Gastroenterology and Nutrition,
Royal Free Hospital, London

15.00 - 15.30 Cotton Room - Tea - Exhibition and poster viewing

15.30 - 16.30 Maximising your personal impact - improving communication skills with patients and colleagues
James Hutchinson, www.jameshutchinson.co.uk

16.30 - 16.45 Short break

16.45 - 18.15 Workshops 1 - 4

1/ Management of pain in renal patients
Pauline Ly, Renal Pharmacist, Hammersmith Hospital
Specialist Pain Nurse to be confirmed

2/ Lessons we can learn from ICU - PK issues with different drug groups eg: antibiotics, analgesics. Haemofiltration. Fluid management
Rob Shulman, Lead Pharmacist Critical Care, University College Hospital, London

3/ Commissioning of high cost drugs and renal services in England
Lucy Galloway, Clinical Commissioning Pharmacist, Barts Health NHS Trust
Adrian Coleman, Clinical Commissioning Pharmacist, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital

4/ Transition from waiting list to transplant - what do patients need to know?
Jessica Dean, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Salford Royal Hospital
Dawn Goodall, Renal Pharmacist and Transplant Outcomes Lead, Hammersmith Hospital

19.15 Pioneer Suite - Pre-Dinner reception and poster review with presenters
by their posters

20.00 Cotton Room - Dinner

This meeting has been supported by the above pharmaceutical companies through the purchase of exhibition trade space only and is limited to meeting the costs of the scientific program
Saturday 24th September

08.30 - 09.00  Corporate Presentation - Satellite session
   Otsuka - Practical guidance for the use of Jinarc (Tolvaptan)

09.00 - 09.30  Corporate Presentation - Satellite session
   Boehringer Ingelheim Ltd - Management of thrombotic occlusions in CVAD dialysis

09.30 - 10.40  Oral poster presentations with Q&A

10.40 - 11.15  Room check out, tea break, exhibition

11.15 - 12.15  What can we learn from the heart?
   Haifa Lyster, Consultant Pharmacist, Harefield Hospital

12.15 - 12.30  Short break

12.30 - 13.30  Interactive forum - A Question of Ethics
   Antonia Cronin, Consultant Nephrologist, Guy’s and St Thomas’ Hospital, London

13.30 - 13.35  Poster prizes and conference summary

13.35 - 14.30  Cotton Room - Lunch and exhibition

14.30 - 16.00  Workshops 5 – 8

   5/ Pregnancy / conception / contraception / HRT
   Helen Thomas, Renal Pharmacist, University Hospital of Wales, Cardiff
   Sian Griffin, Consultant Nephrologist and Transplant Physician, UHW, Cardiff

   6/ What is the correct approach to anaemia of CKD?
   Rachel Ashcroft, Renal Pharmacist, Morriston Hospital, Swansea
   David Jackson, Renal Pharmacist, Morriston Hospital, Swansea

   7/ Portfolio development and maintenance
   To include the new face to face interview for those registered less than 10 years
   Andrea Devaney, Consultant Pharmacist, Transplantation and Renal Services, Oxford University Hospital
   Pooja Mehta Gudka, Renal Pharmacist, Imperial Healthcare NHS Trust

   8/ Managing complex patients
   Adjustment of chemo doses, immunological complications post-transplant
   Caroline Ashley, Lead Pharmacist, Renal Services, Royal Free Hospital
   Emily Horwell, Renal Specialist Pharmacist, University Hospitals Coventry and Warwickshire

16.00 Conference Close

This meeting has been supported by the above pharmaceutical companies through the purchase of exhibition trade space only and is limited to meeting the costs of the scientific program.